JIZZ FOR BRITAIN!

It's all hands on dick as UK faces spunk shortage

BRITAIN is facing a major SPUNK shortage that may be tempting fertility clinics to accept poorer quality sperm.

The British Fertility Society is warning some clinics rely on imported sperm to keep up with demand.

BFS chairman Dr Allan Pacey said he is "worried" that some clinics may be setting a lower bar to "get donors through the door".

He said woman may be subjected to more invasive and expensive techniques if poor quality sperm were used. The number of sperm donors dropped after the right to anonymity was removed in 2005.

Demand for donors has been falling as advances in fertility treatment let more men father their own children. Figures from fertility regulator The Human Fertilisation and Embryology Authority show nearly one in four donated sperm samples are from abroad. In 2005 that figure was one in 10.

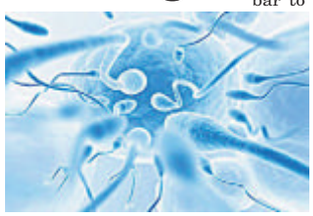

Dr Pacey warned this was limiting patient choice and increasing waiting times, which led to potential risky practices, including DIY insemination with a friend's sperm or seeking treatment in a country with less fertility regulation.

He said: "We do still have a major sperm shortage in the UK.

"The worry is clinics might decide to change the quality of sperm they are willing to accept in order to get donors through the door and I think that's a very dangerous road to go down.

"My worry is clinics may be tempted to bend the rules. I think when we have a national sperm shortage they're the kind of things we need to be looking for and warding against."

UNMUCKY FOR SOME: Shortage of man-gravy means we are reliant on foreigners' fluids

Cameron cannot win, says Farage

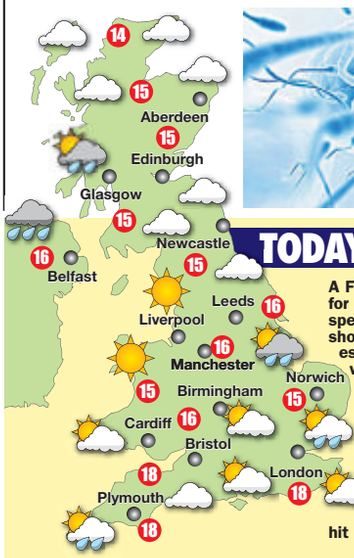

DAVID Cameron's defeat over the appointment of Jean-Claude Juncker as European Commission president shows he won't be able to renegotiate Britain's relationship with Brussels, Nigel Farage has insisted.

European Union leaders would rather see the UK leave than thrash out a substantial new deal, the UKIP leader (above) said.

Mr Farage told BBC Radio 4's Today programme: "The result is to show David Cameron is friendless in Brussels, but ultimately, it's whatever Chancellor Merkel decides. He thinks he can renegotiate our position. He can't."

TODAY'S WEATHER

A FINE and dry Sunday for many with sunny spells, although a few showers are possible, especially in the east where they may be heavy for a time.

Generally more settled than over the weekend with a good deal of fine and dry weather, especially in the south east where it should hit 18C. Elsewhere it will not be reaching last week's heights with temperatures across the country averaging 15C.

Monday will be similar, with isolated showers. Rain will push into the north west on Tuesday.

NATION SALUTES OUR HEROES

HUNDREDS of Armed Forces Day celebrations took place across the country yesterday as Britain saluted our fighters.

Veterans, serving personnel and cadets joined Princess Anne, the Prime Minister and Scottish First Minister Alex Salmond for a day of military demonstrations and events in Stirling.

And at Wimbledon, members of the armed forces were applauded as they joined sports stars including David Beckham, Sir Bobby Charlton and Tom Daley to watch action on Centre Court.

Michelle: I embrace my big boobs!

EX Corrie star Michelle Keegan says that she's learned to embrace her "big boobs".

And we reckon there are a few red-blooded males who'd love to embrace them too!

The 27-year-old actress, who played Tina McIntyre in Coronation Street before being killed-off last month, said: "I've never really worn anything too boob-y.

"I've always had big boobs and, when I was younger, Mum would say 'Don't be shy, embrace it'.

"What I've learnt over the years – especially being in the public eye – is you have to feel comfortable in an outfit to be confident – otherwise it shows."

Shy Michelle reckons that she doesn't like flaunting her baps in a skimpy bikini either.

She revealed: "When I go to a busy place on holiday I don't usually walk around in a bikini. There are parts of my body I don't really like and parts I don't mind.

"I'd love to be one of those girls who is really body-confident but I'm not."

Naughty Nat wants the chat

GAME of Thrones* babe Natalie Dormer has slammed men for NOT chatting her up!

The Brit minx, who has bared her lovely big boobs on the Sky Atlantic fantasy drama, reckons lads are actually SCARED of her.

The 32-year-old, who has also starred in telly shows like The Tudors and Silk and Elementary, moaned: "Do I have a very intimidating face?

"Not many men come up to me and give me one-liners."

Natalie, who plays Margaery Tyrell in Game of Thrones, also likes to treat her fellas mean to keep them keen.

She explained: "My biggest misconception about men growing up is that men need as much TLC as women do. They don't!"

More stylists than soldiers as our armies get a haircut

BRITAIN has more hairdressers than members of the armed forces, new figures have revealed.

And more Brits have signed up to join Islamist rebel groups in Iraq and Syria in the last year than have opted to join Army reserves.

There are currently 185,000 stylists in this country compared to 159,630 regular forces personnel – and more troops are due for the chop. The Ministry of Defence is implementing £10.6bn budget cuts which will lead to regular soldiers being slimmed down from 102,000 to 82,000 by 2020.

The Government insists they are going to fill the Army gap with a minimum of 11,000 extra reservists by 2018.

But since 2012, the trained strength of the Army reserve has stalled. Between April 2013 to April this year, the number of trained reservists increased by just 170 people.

Meanwhile, between 400 and 500 Brits travelled to join Al Qaeda-linked Isis in the same period.

General Sir Peter Wall has warned that any further defence cuts would endanger the Army's structures.

SHOCK

'I paid £25 for taboo Kirsty.

By JUSTIN DUNN
justin@sundaysport.co.uk

A STREET hooker who took photos of herself with a man lying DEAD behind her used to flog ANAL SEX on the cheap to cash-poor punters.

Customers would find Kirsty Edmondson touting for business beneath dimly-lit railway arches in a notoriously seedy part of Manchester city centre.

There, the heroin-addled brunette would offer blowjobs for £10, full sex for £20 and anal for just £25.

Student Todd Bailey, 22, says he opted for a 20-minute bout of bum fun with Edmondson after she propositioned him as he walked away from the city's Piccadilly station in June last year.

Flashed

Todd, who lives with undergraduate pals in the Fallowfield area, said: "I'd never been with a prostitute but I was quite drunk and she was quite fit – with a great body.

"First of all she called over to me, asking for a cigarette. I passed her one and then she pulled her top down and flashed me one of her tits.

"I couldn't believe my eyes. Next she said, 'You can f me for 20 quid…and for an extra fiver and you can do me up the shitter'.

"It was pissing it down – like it always does in Manchester – but we were under the railway arches where it was dry.

"I looked around and there was no one about so I handed over the £25 and she led me over to a spot in the corner.

"She undid my belt, pulled down my jeans and boxers, then massaged my cock until it was hard as nails. She really knew what she was doing and it was all I could do not to mess myself there and then.

"Once I was ready, she took a sachet of lube from her bag and rubbed it over my stiff fella.

Thong

"Then she bent over a concrete bollard, lifted up her skirt and pulled her thong to the side before guiding me into her nipsy."

Todd, who once had trials for his hometown football club Hartlepool Town, added: "Well, I don't mind admitting that I shot my load in less than two minutes.

"It really was the dirtiest, most spontaneous shag of my life and I've relived the experience many times in my head since."

REGRETS: Todd Bailey paid for sex with Kirsty Edmondson

'VULTURES' Kirsty Edmondson (top) and Christopher Sawyers

Grisly selfie taken by call girl as murder victim lays beneath her

SHOCKING: The story has been widely covered in the press

But while his taboo street romp with Kirsty was once firmly in Todd's wank bank, he's now banished it forever.

He explained: "When I read in the papers that she posed for sick selfies with a dead man, I felt a shiver run through my entire body.

"I reckon I had a very lucky escape."

Kirsty, 23, is now behind bars after admitting theft from and defrauding murder victim Kenneth Chapman, 47.

Her pimp and fellow smackhead Christopher Sawyers, 26, killed Kenneth – also a drug user – with a lethal heroin overdose before the vile pair then posed for macabre mobile phone selfies in front of Mr Chapman's corpse.

The pair also had sex in the dead man's bed, living with his decaying body for a whole WEEK before leaving his flat in Eccles, Salford.

Grooming

Sawyers had deliberately injected Mr Chapman – a former teacher who was fired in 2007 after being convicted of grooming a schoolgirl over the internet – with a fatal dose of smack, while the victim was already high and incapable.

The pair then "behaved like vultures" stealing their victim's TV and computer and plundering his bank account to buy items online.

Career criminal Chapman was convicted of murder and manslaughter and jailed for life with a minimum recommendation of 33 years.

Edmondson, who had denied murder, got three years.

She hid the deceased when he was released from prison for the grooming offence and became involved in the Manchester drugs and hooker scene.

Passing sentence, judge Mr Justice Timothy Holroyde said: "A phrase from the trial springs to mind – the pair of you were like 'vultures around a corpse'.

"Kirsty Edmondson in two sentences in her evidence summed it up: 'Drugs change your life and change your morals' and 'smackheads don't really have consciences'."

WILL SEX-SWAP LAUREN WIN EUROVISION SONG CONTEST FOR UK?

CELEBRITY Big Bro*'s favourite antiques expert Lauren Harries wants to represent Great Britain at Eurovision.

It's thought Lauren, 36, has already recorded several songs and sent them off to organisers.

A source close to the keen song-writer said that Lauren has written four songs and is planning to record an album in the near future.

But first she wants to represent the UK in the annual singing contest, which next year will be in Austria, home to 2014 winner, bearded drag artist Conchita Wurst.

A pal said: "Lauren sent them her song and she managed to get an audition, but they haven't told her when yet.

"Lauren wrote the song herself, it's called I'm All Dressed Up and No Place to Go. As with most of her songs it's about Lauren's life experiences."

Lauren first shot to fame when appearing on Terry Wogan's chat show in 1988 as a child prodigy antiques expert. She had a sex change operation to be a woman in 2001.

Scroungeland Britain slurps withered teat

BARELY a week seems to go by when we are not assailed by news of another so-called "benefits scrounger" slurping greedily at the withered public teat.

Recently we have read that low-rent glamour model Josie Cunningham has claimed £6,000 from the parish to ferry her brood to school in taxis.

Now we learn that a woman called Sarah Fowler – another member of Britain's idle class – is whisked around in taxicabs because she fears BUTTERFLIES!

Surely any benefits officer with a shred of common sense would have stamped Fowler's application 'REJECTED'.

But no, the cash flows straight from the hard-pressed taxpayer to the grasp of loafers like Fowler.

This must surely sicken every right-thinking person in our land.

Britain was once the workshop of the world and the centre of a vast trading Empire.

Now we seem to have become a country of idlers and scroungers.

Little wonder we are laughed off the top tables of nations.

Sleep easy over these dunderhead radicals

WE are lucky that this country is defended from the forces of radical Islam by armies and covert services.

We are also fortunate that many of our enemies who gather under the flag of the crescent moon are utter nincompoops.

For every evil genius like Osama bin Laden, there are far more dunderheaded footsoldiers, like dolt Mohammed Aboud.

Aboud – born Brian Grant in one of our less-lovely districts – cannot even grow the fearsome beard of the jihadist, never mind carry out a terror spectacular.

This hapless would-be warrior is yet another reason why we should sleep safe in our beds this night.

Soaper Corrie boob!

Animal porn stash OAP avoids jail

A PENSIONER who was caught with over 1,500 animal porn pics on his computer has escaped a jail term.

Alfred Edge, 71, had a huge stash of bestial images and videos which were found after a police search of his home in Bilston, West Mids, on January 16 last year.

Wolverhampton Crown Court heard when officers seized his computer Edge made no comment when questioned about the images on it.

He pleaded guilty to possessing 1,460 extreme pornographic images of people involved in sexual acts with an animal.

The OAP also admitted possessing a further 27 moving images of the same nature.

But he was spared jail so he could receive treatment instead, after a judge ruled it would not be in "the public interest" to send him to prison.

He was handed a three-year community order which includes attending a community sex offenders' programme.

Kiwi flasher perv's community work

A BRIT caught flashing young women in New Zealand has been ordered to do community work.

Samuel Adrian Gillard, 24, is in the country on a working visa.

But on May 30 he was seen exposing himself to groups of girls at Richmond shopping mall in Nelson, on the country's South Island.

The Nelson District Court heard Gillard looked for reactions and did so out of "sexual frustration".

Judge Tony Zohrab said Gillard's behaviour was "abhorrent to say the least" and he expected Gillard's behaviour was "hardly going to encourage immigration people to let you stay on a fulltime basis".

He sentenced Gillard to 80 hours community work and said he needed to consult his GP and see if there were any mental health issues to address.

WHY DID THIS MAN PUSH 114 WOTSITS UP HIS BOTTOM?

DAFT F*ER: But Alan did as he was told

SUNDAY Sport EXCLUSIVE

The answer may shock you

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

IN the Eighties, before the anti-obesity police banned such tasty treats, barely a schoolchild's lunch box in the land was without a packet of Wotsits.

The cheesy corn puffs turned youthful fingers bright orange from Peterhead to Penzance and still retain a fond place in the memories of millions.

But those memories were sullied last night by sickening news that feeble-minded Alan Keeper had inserted no fewer than 114 Wotsits into his anal cavity.

What's more, the 46-year-old dimwit boasted of his dubious feat on social media and claimed his own MOTHER had encouraged the stunt.

Unwaged Alan, of Crewe, Cheshire, posted on Twitter: "Just put 114 Wotsits up my bum #likemumtold-meto".

Shovel

Explaining his behaviour last night, unwed Alan said: "I was telling our mam all about how I'd been to the garden centre and how I'd bought a new shovel and how it were shiny and all that.

"But I reckon she must have been having one of her fancy men round because she suddenly says 'Oh just f off our Alan and go home and shove Wotsits up your arse, or whatever it is you do…'

"Well, I was always told to do as your mum says, so I went to Patel's corner shop and bought a few bags of Wotsits then took them home to put up my arse.

"It was tricky because the first ones just crumbled in my fingers but once I'd got the hang of it I managed to get 114 up there.

"The only trouble is, it stings when I poo now."

Last night Alan's 72-year-old mother Maureen said: "What's he been up to now? The daft c!"

You'd live on the bog too if you ate like me

IF you live to eat cake and your 35-stone bulk makes you less than mobile, there's only one place to spend the day… on the SHITTER!

Sturdy Wendy Bassett whiles away much of her time "resting" on the specially-reinforced crapper at her sheltered housing complex in Chippenham, Wilts.

Her telly is in the hall and a hostess trolley filled with puddings, pies and treats is within reach of her pudgy arms.

Married Wendy, 37, said last night: "It would not be true to say I spend all of my life on the bog. I do not sleep on the toilet, for example. That would be clearly preposterous!

"But I did find it increasingly difficult to get up and down when making my frequent calls of nature.

Dump

"The obvious solution was to settle on the toilet, put the telly in front of me, have my grub nearby and let nature and gravity do the rest.

"There was a very real danger that I would take a tumble when going to and from the toilet. A sizeable dump makes me dizzy.

"So this is the best solution. It might sound weird but when you think about it, having everything at arm's – and arse's – length makes perfect sense for a lady of my frame."

Last night a neighbour said: "You can hear her arse through the wall when she's letting one go.

"I bet the stink is astonishing – especially in this weather. It makes me feel rather unwell."

Al Qaeda mag encourages nuts to target tournament

SICK terror thugs are planning to BOMB the Wimbledon tennis tournament, we can EXCLUSIVELY reveal.

The horrifying threat was made in Al Qaeda's online magazine Inspire, which also featured a step-by-step guide explaining how to make car bombs using propane cylinders.

And the twisted author of the piece promises that the method will prove "very effective in killing individuals".

Discussing a list of prospective targets in the UK, the mag instructs that "Tennis tournaments" would be an ideal place to unleash its brand of death and carnage in the name of Islam.

The All England Club said that it regularly reviews its security arrangements with the Metropolitan Police.

And in news that will send a shiver through every football fan in Britain, Al Qaeda also plans to point their murderous weapons at Premier League matches.

With the 2014-2015 season due to kick off on August 16, the article adds: "The best time is after the final whistle, when huge crowds leave the stadium and celebrate around the entrances."

Sir Peter Fahy, head of the Association of Chief Police Officers' Prevent counter-terrorism strategy, said he was "extremely concerned" about Inspire, adding that "huge amounts" of material is removed from the internet each week to stop young British Muslims being radicalised.

BITE IN THE TACKLE: Suarez the ferret has attacking instincts

History painfully repeats itself for ferret fan Gerry

SORE TODGER: Gerry has twice been nipped on the red end

SUNDAY Sport EXCLUSIVE

By JON LIVESEY

LIKE all top strikers, Suarez never misses a second chance.

And hapless footie fan Gerry Taylor has the scars on his JOHNSON to prove it after being bitten on his knob TWICE by the violent offender.

But it wasn't the serial chomping soccer ace Luis that nibbled on Gerry's willy – it was his razor-fanged pet FERRET!

The most recent incident took place earlier this week, moments after Uruguay star Luis Suarez had gnawed on Italy defender Giorgio Chiellini during a World Cup match.

Avid Liverpool fan Gerry was still in shock after witnessing the soccer spectacle when his beloved mammal Suarez – named after his hero – took a chunk out of his bellend.

Amazingly, this isn't the first time Gerry's furry friend has attempted to scoff his schlong.

Last year, he spoke exclusively to Sunday Sport about how the critter took a lump out of his manhood after Suarez had bitten Chelsea full-back Branislav Ivanovic.

He was forced to fiercely deny wild accusations that he had been trying to get his pet ferret to perform ORAL SEX on him when it attempted to chow down on his cock.

Opening up about his latest horror tackle hell, he's rebuffed those claims once more – this time claiming it's all simply a huge coincidence.

The plasterer, from Wallasey, on The Wirral, said: "Just like last time, I was watching the game in my underpants and I must have spilled a few crumbs on my crotch again.

CHEWY LUIS AND THE BLUES: Chiellini gets noshed by Luis and shows the marks on his shoulder

"I didn't even notice Suarez had scuttled over until I felt that all too familiar sting on my helmet.

"I can see why people might think I was trying to get Suarez to nosh me off, but I wasn't... I promise. I'm not twisted like that."

Gerry, 29, drove straight to hospital where his damaged dong had to be dressed and he got a tetanus jab.

Despite being left scarred, he insists he'll stand by Suarez, just as Liverpool have stood by their player.

He said: "We don't give up on our team-mates. It isn't the Liverpool way.

"I might ban Suarez from watching the footie for a while, but I'll make sure he gets professional help."

I've met both Dan and Lauren Branning and I can honestly say they must be the most boring couple in showbiz.

I've seen more personality coming from a fart. I hope to God they don't reproduce!

THE England lads fell out of the World Cup quicker than one of Imogen Thomas's double Ds when she sees a pap!

What an embarrassment. These lads get paid a fortune and can't even manage to kick a small ball into a net. Ridiculous.

I don't know what was more comical, though – seeing the bellends crying into their Three Lions or witnessing the WAGs arriving back into Manches-ter, struggling with 16 Louis Vuitton suitcases when in reality they would have been better off packing a bumbag from Primark.

At least Coleen Rooney can now settle into her own luxurious living room and catch up on Big Brother...

BACHELOR OF

Students celebrate graduation with NAKED booze bash

By JON LIVESEY jonl@sundaysport.co.uk

THERE wasn't a cap or a gown in sight when these saucy students graduated last week.

Because they marked the end of their UK university degrees with a NAKED BOOZE ORGY!

The scholars, from Eastern Europe, completed the final year of their English Language & Culture degrees at the prestigious University of West Lancashire.

Over the past 12 months, they have immersed themselves in all things British after making the move as part of an exchange programme with Vilnius University in Lithuania.

But the gorgeous babes chose to celebrate academic success by indulging in an ancient Lithuanian custom – GROUP SEX!

After collecting their certificates, the gang – six Baltic babes and one lucky lad – headed back to their shared house in Skelmersdale for a boozy bonking session.

They stripped off, baring their boobs, bums and nether regions, before necking beer, wine and vodka imported from their homeland.

BEST PARTY BAR NONE: Lusty Lithuanians get stuck into the grog

SEAT OF YEARNING: The University of West Lancashire

Pyjamas

Mantas Peciokas, the sole bloke in the group, told Sunday Sport: "In my country, this is tradition. We've learned much about English culture, like hating foreigners and going shopping in your pyjamas.

"But we wanted to teach our British friends a little about how we party Lithuanian-style. I hope they will enjoy."

NICE RING: The joyous graduates let it all hang out before bonking each other senseless

Paxo show stuffed by his 'fing'

HARD-nosed news inquisitor Jeremy Paxman was forced to offer refunds on tickets to his one-man show – because he SWEARS!

The ex-Newsnight presenter, who quit the BBC2 show a fortnight ago, curses so much during the show, Paxo, that younger children are no longer allowed in.

Promoters have even taken steps to forewarn audience members of what they describe as a "colourful production".

They've offered people the chance to cancel their attendance and request a refund after the rating was upgraded from "universal" to "parental guidance" because of the fruity language.

A source at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, where the show will start on August 18, said: "The age guideline has changed as the performance contains several expletives."

In 2010, Paxman, 64, was forced to apologise after saying "FING" live on air as he read an excerpt from a political history book."

JUICY JOEY'S SLIPPERY NIPPLE PARTY TRICK!

IT'S a good job Joey Fisher has got big hands – because she needs large mitts to handle her oversized CLEAVAGE!

These drool-inducing photos showing Joey groping her own 32H bra-busters are enough to give any red-bloodied boob fan white knuckles.

And the top-heavy 21-year-old says she is just as obsessed with breasts as fellas are.

The Cardiff cutie confessed: "Whenever I go away on holiday I like to check out the other hot girls who are sunning themselves on the beach."

The blessed beauty also has a particularly saucy party trick.

She explained: "I can lick my own nipples!

"It is a pretty good talent to have – and I really love seeing the look of shock on men's faces when I've got my own nipple in my mouth!"

Cara can't be friends with fellas

ACTRESS and model Cara Delevingne says she can't be friends with men as they only ever want to have sex with her.

The blonde (above), 21, who reportedly had a lesbian fling with Avatar star Michelle Rodriguez, admits she much prefers the company of women.

She said: "I don't meet men now who just want to be my friend. It doesn't really happen that much. They're just shallow like that.

"Unless it's one of my girlfriend's boyfriends, most guys are not like, 'Oh, we should just be mates'.

"I think it's harder to become friends with guys, because guys just want to have sex with you."

Dominatrix 'gang' cleared of torture

A DOMINATRIX and two friends accused of holding one of her clients hostage and "torturing" him have been cleared of all false imprisonment, robbery and common assault.

The alleged victim told Aylesbury Crown Court he was held at knifepoint and forced to dance in women's undies and clean his face with a bog brush, while being filmed.

He said he'd gone to the home of Sinead Nijjer, 20, in Aylesbury, Bucks, on July 23 last year, under the impression she would have sex with him for free – having twice previously paid £50 for oral sex.

He also told the jury he feared his "penis would be cut off" during the drama and that the video footage would be released unless he paid them.

BRITAIN'S TOP COMIC DAPPER LAUGHS TALKS EXCLUSIVELY TO SUNDAY Sport

'I've organised a shagging tent at V festival – Mmm... MOIST!'

BEST JOB IN THE WORLD! Dapper loved our babes Rae (left) & Emma

TUNE! Dapper's new single

CHEERS: Our man Fitzy with Dapper

RANDY comedian Dapper Laughs says he only agreed to play this summer's V Festival if he could have his own private SEX TENT!

The funnyman will join comics like Alan Carr and Adam Hills on the main stage at the booze-soaked bash.

And internet sensation Dapper, from Clapham, south London, plans to turn his campsite into a sex playground.

In an exclusive interview with Sunday Sport, he said: "This is a huge thing for me. I always dreamed of doing a festival and can't believe I have managed to blag my way in.

By JOHN FITZPATRICK
fitzy@sundaysport.co.uk

"I'm going to have a cracking time. I get backstage passes, so I'm definitely going to use it to do some moisturising.

Lubricant

"I've actually organised a shagging tent. It's called the "Proper Moist Tent". It was actually part of my deal to appear at the show.

"It's going to be entirely filled with pillows and lubricant.

"I'm excited because I've never shagged a girl at a festival before, so fingers crossed."

Dapper recently finished his first tour, "The Proper Moist Tour", selling out venues across the country. And he admits life on the road is every bit as sordid as people claim.

He revealed: "Women went crazy. I signed a load of boobs and I even signed a vagina at the Liverpool show."

Dapper's first single, Proper Moist, hit No.15 in the charts earlier this year and he's just released a new track called Take It To The Base!

He said: "I love making music. It's fun to perform and the ladies love it.

"In fact, I got so much gash from it I'm releasing a second single."

Despite everyone wanting a piece of the action, he admits the Sunday Sport is still his favourite paper.

We sent two glamour girls along to his Sheffield show in February – gorgeous brunette Rae, 23, 30E, and blonde Emma Bradley, 22, 32FF.

He laughed: "I love Sunday Sport. It's just a shame I couldn't have a go on one of those glamour girls you sent down. I just didn't have enough time!"

V Festival takes place in Staffordshire and Essex from August 16–17.

Don says his daughter Dak is big nudes

MIAMI Vice star Don Johnson says his DAUGHTER'S debut nude scenes are going to be "spectacular".

The actor's offspring Dakota, 25, will get her kit off for the first time playing Anastasia Steele in the upcoming movie version of best-selling sex book Fifty Shades of Grey.

And Don – aka Eighties cop James "Sonny" Crockett – says he's confident Dakota will wow fans.

The Yank thesp, 64, said: "This is the family business and I am absolutely certain that Dakota will take a piece of material, and a character which a lot of people might imagine could be inappropriate, and turn it into something spectacular.

"Speaking like a proud father and a seasoned professional, I can tell you she is a gifted actress and this will just be one of a long line of tremendous performances in her career."

Dakota has already appeared in flicks 21 Jump Street and The Social Network.

Unexpected item in ball-bagging area!

POLICE swooped on a supermarket after they received reports of a man WANKING in the aisles.

Derek Bennett, 26, was booked on two counts of indecent exposure after witnesses spotted him masturbating in the Walmart store.

CCTV cameras caught him pulling his penis and bollocks from his trousers and furiously tugging.

When he was seen, he left the store and was arrested when officers pulled him over in his car.

Cops in Tulsa, Oklahoma, said that when Bennett was taken into custody, he admitted exposing himself, but said that he was surprised people had seen him.

He also told police that he went to high school and knew his rights.

Bennett is currently in the Tulsa County Jail.

CORRIE ATROCITY

THIS IS NOT WHAT KATY DID

Fury at Street babe's FAKE snaps

By JUSTIN DUNN
justin@sundaysport.co.uk

SEXY soap star Georgia May Foote has become the latest celebrity to fall victim to cruel internet pranksters.

Wrongdoers have morphed the face of the Corrie actress – who plays Katy Armstrong on the ITV soap – onto the body of a NAKED model.

The FAKE images are just the latest hiccup to befall the 23-year-old from Liverpool.

Last month she learned her character was being written out of the Weatherfield show, although producers insist single mum Katy isn't being killed off and may return.

And weeks later Georgia was rushed to hospital for tests after fainting on set.

Now the keyboard nerds have added to her woes by fuelling the fires of her most ardent fans with the manipulated "nude" images.

COBBLED TOGETHER: Katy (above right) was targetted by net nerds

One Street insider said: "It's a shame that people have enough idle time in their lives to bother doing something like this.

"Georgia is a very talented young actress – she has the world at her feet."

CORPSE SAVILE

Former pal tells of meganonce's revolting trophy

By BARNEY SAMUELS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

PERVERT DJ Jimmy Savile had a necklace of HUMAN PENISES that he wore while entertaining pals at his Highland lair, we can reveal.

That's the bizarre claim made by Graham Forsyth, a former pal of the late meganonce who was a regular visitor to Savile's cottage in Glencoe.

Graham, 76, spoke out after a report found ex-BBC DJ Savile sexually assaulted victims aged five to 75 in NHS hospitals over five decades of unrestricted access.

Former metal worker Graham said: "When all the stuff came out about Jimmy and the kiddies, I was shocked.

"I always knew he had his eccentricities but I never had any inkling that he was into that sort of thing. It appears that many people had heard he was a paedo but I never heard about it.

"That said, what I did know about him was bizarre. Jimmy didn't drink but you'd swear he was bloottered, the way he carried on.

"When you were round at his wee place up Glencoe, he'd occasionally bring out this necklace made out

PUZZLE: Graham Forsyth (above) claims Jimmy Savile (main pic) had a necklace made of penises

WITNESS: Savile told me he went down on DEAD BODIES

DEAD entertainer Jimmy Savile used to boast of performing ORAL SEX on DEAD BODIES.

The vile DJ used to talk about giving "gamaroosh" to corpses – an old Irish term for FELLATIO.

Savile, who died in October 2011 aged 84, told a male nurse at Broadmoor Hospital – one of the specialist medical units where he worked as a volunteer – about his disgusting practices.

And the nurse told official NHS investigators: "He used a phrase that is not so common nowadays – he talked about 'gamaroosh'.

"It means oral sex… Well, that he, he'd go down on them and gamaroosh and muck about in that way."

Horrifying

The horrifying detail was released last week after a lengthy investigation into the former Radio 1 and Jim'll Fix It presenter's decades of depravity, which were only uncovered after his demise.

The nurse said he believed the BBC star was talking about experiences working in the mortuary at Leeds General Infirmary.

LEEDS General Infirmary

He added: "His words were to the effect, 'What we often do is get ourselves down into the morgue at night and have a muck about…'

"And he went on to relate how they set the bodies – he kept saying 'they' – so he couldn't have been on his own in this.

"He was saying that they used to put the bodies together, male and female, and he also said that they took photographs.

"And also that he got involved in some of the photographs."

SEX FIEND WORE A NECKLACE OF HUMAN PENISES

of wee shrivelled men's cocks.

"He'd never say where it came from. I always assumed he'd got it from abroad but after reading the latest stuff about Jimmy, I wouldnae be surprised if he'd hacked those cocks from bodies in some morgue and made the necklace himself.

Abused

"What I'd like to know is, where's the necklace now? There's been no mention of it in any of the reports I've seen.

"I'd hate to think there is a box with a cock necklace in it, lurking in some warehouse somewhere."

Even without a grisly necklace of cocks, reports about Savile's wrongdoing – released last Thursday – makes chilling reading.

The reports cover 28 hospitals including Leeds General Infirmary and Broadmoor psychiatric hospital.

Savile abused patients in their beds, in corridors and offices.

Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt apologised on behalf of the government and NHS, saying victims were "let down badly".

Savile's cavorting with corpses – first reported in Sunday Sport – has also been officially recognised during the inquiry into his crimes.

Star's boobs Taylor made for slammer

ORANGE Is The New Black babe Taylor Schilling says she loves playing a jailbird – because she doesn't have to worry about what her BOOBS look like in prison overalls.

The sexy blonde actress stars in the Yank TV show as bisexual beauty Piper Chapman, who is sent down after being caught with a suitcase full of drug money.

Unlike some of her previous parts, her current role only requires her to wear minimal make-up and traditional prison garb.

And she says it makes a refreshing change because she doesn't have to give her norks a second thought.

Taylor, 29, said: "There's freedom in not having to make it about how my jeans fit or what my boobs look like in a top. All I have to do now is play."

On her biggest assets, Taylor added: "I don't feel bound by my face or my body.

"I feel like there are more parts of me to offer than that."

WE TOLD YOU FIRST!

Sunday Sport broke necrophilia story TWO YEARS ago

WHEN Sunday Sport readers saw last week's headlines about Jimmy Savile having sex with dead bodies, they could have been forgiven a sense of experiencing DEJA VU.

For this newspaper broke the story of the BBC meganonce's necrophilia back in October 2012.

Almost TWO YEARS ago!

This was back when the Leveson witch hunt against the tabloid press was at its height and once-brave newspapers cowered in the face of the onslaught.

Unbowed, your Sunday Sport went ahead and brought you the shocking news that Savile – once a much-loved television icon – was in fact a vile abuser of human cadavers.

Attacked

For putting our heads above the parapet, we were attacked as sensationalist peddlers of half-truth and innuendo.

Today, we stand vindicated by the court of history.

A spokesman for Sunday Sport said: "This was a very upsetting story for everyone who worked on it and counselling was made available to all those members of our loyal staff.

"But the sword of truth is sometimes an unpleasant weapon to wield."

Goldilocks and the free beers

A REAL-LIFE Goldilocks has been arrested after she broke into a house, took a shower, put on the homeowner's pyjamas and got PISSED on their stash of booze.

Chancy Layton, 19, (above) intended to burgle the property in St Augustine Beach, Florida, but passed out drunk after making herself at home.

When householder Cheryl Petocz arrived home the next day, she found the blonde teen asleep on her couch, wearing her jimjams and surrounded by bottles of her grog.

Mrs Petocz said: "We just stood there a bit, looking at each other.

"I told her I was calling the police. Then she grabbed a few things and ran out of the back door."

Layton, who left her purse and passport behind, was caught by police nearby.

She has since been charged with burglary, theft and criminal mischief.

Nude man in tractor chase

A NAKED man was arrested after he led police on a LOW-SPEED chase using a tractor as his getaway vehicle.

Cop spokesman Martin Fournel said that the 31-year-old hadn't slept in days and was in a drug fuelled rage when his father called them for help controlling his son.

When police arrived at the home, the man was in a car in the driveway repeatedly honking the horn. He then hopped onto a 1973 Massey-Ferguson tractor and led police on a chase through a trail near the house.

Fournel said: "Officers were able to follow the tractor. He was going about 20mph."

Police arrested the man when the tractor abruptly stopped. He was taken to hospital in Shawville, Ontario, for assessment and could face charges of fleeing from police.

PITIFUL: Mohammed Aboud – formerly Brian Grant – failed miserably as a terrorist

BRITAIN'S CRAPPIEST JIHADIST!

SUNDAY Sport EXCLUSIVE

THE REAL DEAL: Actual Jihadists are more organised

FAILED to grow beard because of skin complaint

FAILED to record video message because of stutter

FAILED to fly to Middle East as passport expired

MEET Mohammed Aboud, one of the hundreds of radicalised British Muslims hoping to take up arms and join Isis forces against the Iraqi government.

By BARNEY SAMUELS
news@sundaysport.co.uk

But don't lose too much sleep worrying about this particular warrior of Allah – formerly a supermarket shelf-stacker and petty crook called Brian Grant.

Because hapless Aboud is fing CRAP!

The 23-year-old loner, who was known as Sweaty Brian during his school days in Rhyl, north Wales, became attracted to radical Islam during solitary hours watching YouTube in his bedsit.

He made contact with the elders of a radical mosque, believed to be in the Manchester area, and began saving up for his plane ticket to Iraq, via Turkey.

It was at this point, sources have told Sunday Sport, that he attracted the attentions of MI5.

Operatives at the secretive agency reported that they were "underwhelmed" by the threat Aboud posed.

The spooks' assessment was confirmed when Aboud was turned back at Manchester Airport with an expired passport – issued when he was just a child.

A video posted on the internet, and timed to emerge on Friday, shows Aboud attempting to explain his defection to the forces of militant Mohammedenism. His rant is almost unintelligible due to a severe stutter.

The footage also shows that Aboud has failed to grow a beard. This is thought to be due to a flaky skin complaint which gave rise to the young Brian's alternative nickname at school – Scabby Grant.

Last night there was no sign of Aboud at his bedsit in Rhyl. Neighbours described him variously as "an oddball" and "smelling of wee".

A source at MI5 said: "It is true that the individual known as Mohammed Aboud has appeared on our radar but, frankly, he's a bit crap."

More than 1,500 young Brits may have been recruited by extremists fighting in Iraq and Syria, an MP said last week.

Khalid Mahmood said the radicalisation of young British men is a problem that has grown steadily in recent years and could be much more serious than previously thought.

CORRIE NICK NAKED PICS HELL

Actor mocked by cobbles pals over Footballers' Wives scene

RIBBED: Corrie co-stars Jenny, Jack and Ryan

BEN DOVER: Street star strips in old naked romp scenes with Zoe Lucker

CORONATION Street hunk Ben Price has been taking a ribbing off his fellow soap stars for his past explicit SEX SCENES.

Younger cast members on the ITV soap's set have been teasing Ben, 42 – who plays bistro boss Nick Tilsley – about his on-screen nakedness.

It was filmed 10 years ago when he played randy footballer Conrad Gates in the drama Footballers' Wives, which shot Ben to stardom.

His sex scenes with actress Zoe Lucker – which saw him licking champagne off her naked boobs – gained him an army of fans.

But a Street insider has revealed Ben – mildly embarrassed by the attention his BARE BUM got from girls and the gays alike – is being reminded of his role a decade later.

Cheeky cobbles cast members Jenny McAlpine, Jack P Shepherd and Ryan Thomas – who play Fiz Stape, David Platt and Jason Grimshaw – have posted up print-outs of Ben's bum around the soap's set in Salford.

In the show, Nick Tilsley is currently enduring the misery of seeing estranged wife Leanne enjoying a love affair with his former personal trainer, gym boss Kal Nazir (played by Jimi Mistry).

A Street source said: "Ben's a popular member of the cast but that doesn't stop people taking the mick. His bottom is all over the internet, and some of the younger lot won't let him forget it."

DEANO ON SUNDAY

Eco-warriors are all tw*ts

NEXT time some Save The Whale crusty rattles a bucket under your snotter asking for a donation for Greenpeace, consider how that money is spent.

Pascal Husting, Greenpeace International's programme director, has – until recently – been flying 250 miles between Luxembourg and Amsterdam at the charity's expense since 2012.

Each trip costs Greenpeace £200 and would generate 142kg of carbon dioxide emissions, according to airline KLM. There is a perfectly good rail service between Luxembourg and Amsterdam.

I hate to say this but full marks to The Guardian newspaper, who uncovered this breathtaking piece of hypocrisy.

Greenpeace, of course, campaign against air travel and would have us trundling around in carts – presumably leaving the planes nice and empty for their directors.

But it is not just the head honchos of Greenpeace who engage in this oh-so–typically-lefty pursuit of Olympic-class hypocrisy.

Last weekend saw the summer solstice where thousands of unwashed, hug-a-tree, live-in-a-tent, eco-arseholes celebrate the coming dawn at Stonehenge.

And to show their respect for Mother Earth, the ftards dumped 20,000 tons of litter on Salisbury Plain.

Cs. Utter, utter cs.

● LAST week someone told me about the latest storyline in Coronation Street.

I swear to God, I could actually see the will to live running out of my toes.

Twits run to cops over online teasing

MOANING MINNIE: Model Josie Cunningham

Up to HALF of complaints dealt with by cops on any working day now involve moans from the public about abuse, threats or antisocial behaviour on Facebook, Twitter or other social media.

HALF!

Which can only mean that the Dibble are being absolutely swamped by dickheads running to tell teacher because someone's tweeted that they're a c.

Last week we read that ragged-edged glamour model Josie Cunningham had complained to the Plod that some dopey bird from Corrie had joked about twatting her on Twitter.

Josie, love, we taxpayers shelled out five grand for your tits.

Why should we pay for the Old Bill to investigate what some woman in a telly soap said about you?

Twitter is becoming a major pain in the arse.

Recently, a Tory MP joked about punching some irritating female journalist in the throat.

The MP, Michael Fabricant, is a bit of a loose cannon but has, for a Tory, rock-solid PC credentials.

This did not stop the female journalist – a proper lefty whining windbag called Yasmin Alibhai-Brown – calling for Fabricant to be booted out of the Conservative Party.

Have these people never heard the rhyme: "Sticks and stones may break my bones… but you can always switch Twitter off, you soft c."

And if you actually run to the Filth to complain about a bit of teasing on Twitter you should be hurled into clink for wasting police time.

● IT was pointed out the other day that it's been ages since I printed a picture of Victoria Coren Mitchell's tits.

Soon put that right…

TONY Blair's former head of communications, Alastair Campbell (left), is widely reported as being the brains behind the "sexed up" dodgy dossier which led directly to the Iraq War and hundreds of thousands of deaths.

Campbell is now to be found touring the TV studios, giving us the benefit of his vast experience and sharing snippets of his immense wisdom.

Andy Coulson (below left), who was David Cameron's former head of communications, committed the grave crime of, er, listening to a couple of Hugh Grant's telephone messages.

And Coulson's facing a prison term.

Do you ever stop and think that this word is utterly, utterly fed up?

Oh, and another thing that demonstrates just how topsy-turvy this whole case is: Max Clifford.

Clifford got a million quid from News International after his phone was hacked. This poor, violated soul was, of course, a serial sex offender.

YOU pay scrounger's £500-a-month taxi bill...because she's scared of BUTTERFLIES!

FARE MAIDEN: Sarah gets free cabs because of her 'disability'

FREE RIDE: Model Josie Cunningham gets taxis paid for by her council

By SIMON DEAN
simon@sundaysport.co.uk

SPARE a thought for poor Sarah Fowler – who is too scared to step outside in summer due to a morbid fear of BUTTERFLIES!

On second thoughts, DON'T spare a thought for the bone-idle 21-year-old from Droylsden, Manchester.

Her preposterous "phobia" means that YOU pay for her to be ferried about in TAXIS at a cost of £500 EVERY MONTH.

Fowler's case reflects that of 23-year-old wannabe glamour model Josie Cunningham, whose local council have funded £6,000 of cab rides to take her two children to school.

Cunningham, of Leeds, who infamously had a £4,800 breast enlargement operation on the NHS, said she was unable to use the bus thanks to her national notoriety.

But sponger Fowler – who has never done a day's work in her life – insists her case is different from Cunningham's and that her taxpayer-funded taxi rides are a medical NECESSITY.

The admittedly-pretty waste of space drawled: "It's not my fault that I get anxiety attacks. In winter it's the pigeons; in summer it's bees, flies, wasps and butterflies.

"I just can't walk to the shops for my ciggies and cider, I'd be a gibbering wreck within five yards of the house. I'd probably piss me knickers and that.

Disabled

"The council should pay for me to have taxis to run around in. I'm proper disabled by this condition so I'm entitled to help."

But neighbours are less than impressed. One – who refused to be identified for fear of reprisals – said: "She's fing scum through and through. She's not scared of owt that lass.

"I saw her bottle a pitbull once. Butterflies, my arse. She's defo taking the piss."

Meanwhile Josie Cunningham has reportedly called cops in over a tweet by Coronation Street star Catherine Tyldesley.

Josie is thought to have contacted the police after Tyldesley, who plays busty barmaid Eva Price in the ITV soap, tweeted that she wanted to "smack" her.

After news that Josie was said to be getting taxpayer-funded taxi rides worth £6,000 a year, Tyldesley tweeted: "If she ever gets on my bus, I'll smack her myself. #disgrace."

Hunt for bus willy flasher

POLICE have released an image of a man who showed his genitals to a bus driver when asked to produce a bus pass.

The man got on the 620 bus at Bradford Interchange, West Yorks.

When the male driver asked him to show his pass, he exposed himself and ran.

The bus was carrying several other passengers who witnessed the incident.

An image caught on the bus's CCTV was released in an attempt to identify the flasher, who left the driver feeling "alarmed."

The man is described as Asian, in his 20s, of average build and around 5ft 8in tall. He had short black hair, and was wearing black tracksuit bottoms and a black hooded top.

BRITAIN'S GRUMPIEST COLUMNIST

Les Miserable

THE goal-filled World Cup is going from strength to strength – some people are saying it's the greatest tournament in history, and it's hard to disagree.

The only thing that's ruined it for me is the incessant whining from arseholes who are pretending to be disgusted by Uruguay's Luis Suarez biting the Italian defender Giorgio Chiellini.

F* off! It's one of the greatest things I've ever seen at the World Cup! If you want to get to the very top you should use every tool available to you, and Suarez has teeth like a deranged beaver.

Why WOULDN'T he try and sink his gnashers into an opponent? It's no different to a defender using his extra height to win a header – Suarez has got extra teeth so he uses them to get an advantage in the penalty box.

I'm not even sure there's anything in the rules of football that say you CAN'T bite an opponent. In fact, they should encourage it, otherwise players will start looking at other ways of getting an edge – like taking to the pitch with a knife down their sock.

He might be banned but Suarez is easily my player of the tournament.

IT'S that time of year when thousands of revellers descend upon Glastonbury and soak up all of the cultural delights that the festival brings.

Alternatively, it's a great way of knowing where all of Britain's soap-dodging hippy weirdos are hanging out at the same time. They might as well spray 'Wanker Camp' over the word 'Glastonbury' on all the nearby road signs for the weekend.

If the government have got any sense, they'll drop a bomb on the festival and blame it on North Korea. Wipe out thousands of the country's weak-minded, feckless bellends in one fell swoop.

Then we can start working to get this ridiculous country back on its feet.

WE'RE almost halfway through Wimbledon, with stone-faced oddball Andy Murray heading towards a second successive championship win.

But let's face it – like Glastonbury, it's another gathering of the dim, useless and hopeless. Rich idiots who are happy to fork out a tenner for a glass of booze with bits of fruit in it and a fiver for a few strawberries in a pot.

But, there's no mud, and the fanny is infinitely tastier than at Glasto, so I'll let it pass.

WHAT could be better than watching a bit of footie?

Watching a bit of footie played by NAKED women, that's what!

The stunnas from Yank TV outfit Naked News stripped off for a kickabout on West Palm Beach, Florida.

Onlookers were amazed to see the long-legged lovelies making tackles and blocking shots with their bare MINGES. One spectator said: "I was completely underwhelmed by the performance of Roy Hodgson's bunch of flops.

"But I was more impressed by these naked birds. Being women, they're shit at footie – but our national team are shit at footie and they are not as nice to look at."

Tips on Tits

TIP OF THE WEEK

HOLLAND face Mexico today (Sunday) – with both teams looking like class acts so far in Brazil.

Mexico made it through Group A with 7 points while the Dutch won all three of their group games.

With Van Persie back from suspension and Arjen Robben on fire I can see Holland being too strong for Mexico here.

So I'm going for Netherlands -1 goal at 3/1 with Winner.

CAPTION CONTEST

WIN £50

YOU really flexed your comedy MUSCLES with your entries for last week's Caption Contest, folks.

But only one can be first on the podium and this time it's A R Hall, from Porthcawl, with: "My hubby was shocked when I carried him over the threshold. Wait until he feels my cock up his arse."

Mr Hall will receive a cheque for £50 in the next few weeks, but lots of others gave us a giggle.

Gerry Exall, Weston-super-Mare: "I know she wanted rough sex on her wedding night, but this is going too far..."

Andy Berry, Welton: "She used to lift dumbbells, but now she's marrying one."

G Hinson, Colchester: "This is my day. Don't anyone f with me."

Tommy Coleman, Newton-le-Willows: "I've been tossing blokes off on my hen night and hope my husband-to-be won't notice."

Marie Gallen, Worcester: "We've had the wedding bells, but I much prefer my dumbbells."

David Jeffs, Rochdale: "Sod it, I'll tell him I'm a pre-op transsexual after the wedding. I thought the thick bastard would have picked up on the w*nking arm though."

THIS WEEK

Now it's YOUR turn to see if you can win a cool £50 with your wit.

Just come up with a caption for the pic above, fill in the coupon and send it to our brand new HQ: Caption Contest, c/o Sunday Sport, Floor 3, Maclaren House, Lancastrian Office Centre, Talbot Road, Old Trafford, Manchester, M32 0FP.

Entries must be with us by Friday. Best of luck, folks!

STUDENTS TALK SEX!

SAMANTHA KELLY
AGE: 19
FROM: Birmingham
STUDYING: Media Studies
FAVE DRINK: Gin and tonic
FAVE FOOD: Pot Noodle
FAVE ACTOR: Michael Sheen
FAVE FILM: Twilight

NICOLE SMITH
AGE: 19
FROM: Birmingham
STUDYING: English Literature
FAVE DRINK: Cider
FAVE FOOD: Chicken chow mein
FAVE ACTOR: George Clooney
FAVE FILM: From Dusk Till Dawn

FIRST TIME

SAMANTHA: I lost my cherry to one of my friends when I was 17. He was experienced and he said he'd make my first time special, so I did it with him.
NICOLE: Was it like you thought it'd be?
SAMANTHA: No, it was much better. My friends had warned me it'd be crap but it was actually very good.

He lasted about an hour and I even had an orgasm. I had a much better first time than everyone I know.
NICOLE: My first time was on the top of bunk beds when I was 16. My friends had sent me on a blind date and the guy turned out to be well fit. He was a joker and laughed me into bed.
SAMANTHA: How long did he last?
NICOLE: Five minutes but it was only the second time he'd had sex so it didn't matter. We ended up dating each other and he got much better very quickly.

HUGE WILLIES

SAMANTHA: Have you had many big willies?
NICOLE: I've had two memorable ones. One was about eight inches long and skinny and the other was about six inches long but unbelievably fat.
SAMANTHA: Which was best?
NICOLE:The fat one hurt and wasn't nice at all but the sex was brilliant with the long one. Eight inches is a perfect willy size.
SAMANTHA: I had a one-night stand with a friend and he had a huge willy. It was just under 10 inches long and even though I was drunk I was a bit worried it would hurt.
NICOLE: Did it?
SAMANTHA: No, it was amazing though. I was screaming my head off for hours it was so good. I love big willies.

FAVE POSITION

NICOLE: You have to be careful which sex position you do when the guy's willy is big.

My favourite is me on top but I'd never do that with a big one because it would go too deep and would hurt.
SAMANTHA: My favourite is missionary, it's nice not having to do any work and letting the bloke take control.

THREESOMES

NICOLE: Would you ever like to try a threesome?
SAMANTHA: Yes, I'd love to have one with two blokes, it'd be fun.
NICOLE: Do you know anyone who has had one?
SAMANTHA: Yes, the girl who lived next to me in student halls brought back two blokes once. They were banging away all night long and she had a huge grin on her face for weeks afterwards.
NICOLE: I haven't had one but I'd like to one day. There are loads of threesomes going on when you're a student. I know at least four people who've had them and they all rave about them.

STRANGE PLACES

SAMANTHA: Have you had sex anywhere strange?
NICOLE: Yes, I've got a naughty secret. I had sex on an plane with the guy who was sat next to me last year.
SAMANTHA: A complete stranger?
NICOLE: Yes, we were on a 15-hour flight and got drunk together. Next thing I knew we were having sex in the toilet.

It was amazing having sex so close to hundreds of people without them realising. I'd love to do it again.
SAMANTHA: The most exciting place I've done it was in my boyfriend's parents' Jacuzzi.
NICOLE: What was it like?
SAMANTHA: It was great. We did it in the middle of the night when his parents were asleep.

The bubbles make you sensitive and knowing you may get caught is a big turn-on. It was fantastic

SEX TOYS

NICOLE: What's your favourite sex toy?
SAMANTHA: Probably my handcuffs. There's nothing better than tying your bloke to the bedpost. I find it am enormous turn-on.
NICOLE: Have you tried blindfolds?
SAMANTHA: Yes, but that freaked me out a bit. I didn't like not being able to see what was going to happen.
NICOLE: I like using heated lubricant during sex, it gives you a nice feeling. I'm a big fan of using food during sex too.

SAMANTHA: What kind of stuff?
NICOLE: I like being covered in whipped cream and having it licked off. It's REALLY great!

ONE-NIGHT STANDS

SAMANTHA: Since you started uni, how many one-night stands have you had?
NICOLE: Three. Two were great but the other one was crap because the guy couldn't keep it up longer than a few minutes.
SAMANTHA: Do you think they're a good idea?
NICOLE: Yes, it's uncomplicated. You have sex, then you disappear the next morning, simple as that.
SAMANTHA: I've only had one but it was very good. It was the guy who had a huge willy.

It was very noisy and I kept my flatmates up all night.
NICOLE: Would you have another one?
SAMANTHA: I'm not sure, he'd have to be very fit for me to have another. I think they are better for boys than they are for girls.

STUDENT SEX

SAMANTHA: Students seem to have more sex than anyone else but do you think we have better sex lives than working people?
NICOLE: The student boys do because they're shagging all the time. They'll stick it anywhere and they'll never have as much sex when they're older.
SAMANTHA: I agree with you but I think women's sex lives get better as they get older. I believe in quality not quantity.

FANTASTIES

NICOLE: What fantasies of yours have you actually lived out?
SAMANTHA: I've lived out a few, but the best one was last year when I had a fling with a married man. It was great because it felt so naughty.
NICOLE: How did it happen?
SAMANTHA: I pulled him on a night out and things just went on from there. I'd always wanted to bed a married bloke and although I felt guilty at the same time it was a big thrill.
NICOLE: I fulfilled my fantasy when I made a homemade porno with my fella.

We pretended it was a real film and made it corny and erotic. I used to love watching it back when we were having sex.

DRESSING UP

NICOLE: Do you have any kinky gear?
SAMANTHA: Oh yes – I love to get into different costumes in the bedrom. My favourite is a tiny naughty nurse outfit – it's made from a rubber material and it's very tight and clingy.

It takes a bit of getting in to, but it always produces the desired effect.

I've not met a bloke yet who hasn't got a huge boner when he's seen me in it!

"It was very noisy and it kept my flatmates up all night..."

FIRST TIME TOPLESS...

JESSYCA WILSON

FOR someone who has never stripped off for the cameras before, Jessyca Wilson very was calm for our snappa.

Stark naked in the bath, with a cascade of water shooting out of a shower nozzle and up between her legs, she pushed her knees apart and happily said: "Cheese!"

By JUSTIN DUNN
justin@sundaysport.co.uk

The 34D Yorkshire lovely said: "Friends of mine have been saying for years that I should do some modelling, but I was never that confident before.

"Then I just had a change of heart and decided to go for it. And I loved every minute of the experience – it was amazing!

"You have no idea how exciting it is to be completely naked while someone takes lots of saucy photos of you.

"And being naked in front of complete strangers used to be something I'd have nightmares about. Now those nightmares have become dreams!

"I can't wait to do this again. Maybe I'll do a photoshoot outdoors next time."

AMBER'S LOOKING SOAPER

Amber Price
Age 23, 32DD-25-35, from Bradford

By JOHN FITZPATRICK
fitzy@sundaysport.co.uk

NAUGHTY Amber Price says she loves getting WET – by bonking in the shower!

The busty 24-year-old topless model has opened-up about her love of a slippery bathroom fumble, and how soaping-up her whopping 32DD boobs is a sure-fire way to get her in the mood for love.

The Bradford babe said: "There's nothing sexier than doing it in the shower – it always gets me going.

"I can get my boobs all soaped up, then have him play with them while the hot water runs down the back of my neck.That sounds so naughty!"

And when she's not having a steamy bathroom bonk, Amber can be found indulging in marathon sex sessions with her lucky fella.

She purred: "I prefer long, sensual sex to a quickie.

"I like taking my time with a guy – touching him all over his body and having lots of fun with it.

"I think it's best to slowly build up – doing a lot of foreplay and kissing each other passionately.

"I'd start with a massage to get in the mood and take it from there.

"That would definitely be my perfect night in."

Dear Hannah,

I'M an 18-year-old man living in quite a posh neighbourhood where a lot of the big houses have swimming pools in their back garden.

A few weeks ago new people moved in next door to us. The bloke obviously has loads of dosh but works away to earn it, leaving his partner, who is 20 years younger, sat home to lounge about semi-naked in the garden or by their pool.

I glanced out my bedroom one day to see her stretched out naked and I had to have a tug.

Later in the week, I was in our garden in shorts and, out of curiosity, peeped over the fence.

She saw me and called me round for a drink. While I was taking my first sip of Pimm's she pulled out my knob and sucked me off.

I shot my load quickly and she hasn't invited me round since. What can I do to stick one up her?

FR, Cheshire

Hannah says...

HAVE a w*nk before you take round a bottle of champagne and apologise.

Dear Hannah,

MY old fella is just four inches long and I've been unable to satisfy my wife for some time.

I'm completely submissive to her – she's the boss and treats me like shit most of the time.

But I have just learned to live with it and plod along.

She brings men home who have eight-inchers or bigger and she locks me in a cupboard and gives me her used knickers to sniff while I toss off and peep through a hole at her getting fed fast and hard on the bed.

I've watched dozens of men with huge cocks ramming it up my missus.

Sometimes she brings back two fellas and screws them at the same time – giving them a blowjob and squealing with pleasure when they spunk down her throat.

When these men have gone she makes me pleasure her orally and then I can shag her, as a treat.

But she lies there and reads a book and says she can't feel anything.

We have been married for 17 years and she says it's the price I have to pay for having such a small cock.

Still, I'm not unhappy and have recently started shagging the wife's sister. She's made me realise it's not how big but what you do with it.

Now I'm making plans to leave the wife and realise I've been a chump.

So to all those short-changed in the cock department, don't worry – there's always someone who'll appreciate what you've got to offer.

DD, Kent

Hannah says...

GOOD advice – thanks for your letter.

Dear Hannah,

MY boss' s wife is a busty blonde in her early 40s and I've been boning her for six months.

I have to say, she is a really excellent f and much more exciting than my girlfriend.

The first time I shagged her was when she offered to give me a lift home after we both stayed at the office a bit later than normal, to finish off some paperwork for our accounts department.

We did it on the back seat of her Mercedes after she took a slight detour and drove us to a secluded spot on the edge of town.

After some heavy petting in the front seat, she whipped my stiff cock out and sucked me off before we clambered into the back and she ordered me to f her.

The problem is I'm due to get married next month but she says she'll get me sacked if I refuse to carry on seeing her.

What do you think I should do?

KF, Essex

Hannah says...

CALL her bluff. Say you'll tell her husband about your sordid affair if she carries on threatening you.

Age 20, 34F-24-34, from Stepney, east London

Older and bolder babes do it better

Dear Hannah,

WHAT people say about older women is true – they really do know what they're doing in bed.

And, not to put too fine a point on it, they're usually pretty up for a shag too.

I'm 24 but I've always gone for older ladies and until very recently was in a relationship with a 52-year-old divorced mum, who was a beast in bed.

Since we split up I've got the horn for much older tarty-looking sorts.

Last week in a club I was eyeing up a couple of tasty-looking women in their late 40s.

I got them up and dancing and when the club was closing I took them back to my place for more drinks.

It wasn't long before we were all naked in my bed.

At first I was just getting it on with one of them and thought the other lying by her side wasn't very interested in joining in.

But I was wrong because after a while I felt her hand cup my balls as I slammed into her pal from behind. From there she managed to get them in her mouth and roll her tongue around them for a while.

After that I hoisted her up, in the standing position, and banged her up against the wall.

Then the two of them put on a bit of a lesbo show for me – which was a first for me.

Once they'd gone beyond necking and fondling each other's massive tits they had their fingers working furiously on one another's love-holes.

That got me going again and I fed each of them in turn as they licked each other out.

Before we fell asleep I remember one of them crouching over the other's face while I w*nked all over them.

In the morning they made me a sizzling full English breakfast and treated me like a king.

I can't imagine that happening with a lass my own age – can you? None of them can be arsed cooking these days.

I see these two goers regularly and it's always top shagging. They say they want to share me and are asking me not to see any other women.

But I'm not quite sure about the whole setup.

What do you think?

GH, Norfolk

Hannah says...

THEY want a sex slave. Don't let them chain you up.

Dear Hannah,

I'M a 21-year-old secretary in a legal firm and my 35-year-old boss has taken a real shine to me.

A couple of weeks ago the two of us had to go on a conference and stay overnight in a fancy hotel.

After the day's lectures and presentations had finished, we retired to the restaurant and had a lovely meal together.

I let him order for me – which was a real turn on, having him in full control of things.

He ordered a bottle of champagne and oysters and I was soon a little bit tipsy and feeling quite randy.

So when he suggested we go back to his room for a "nightcap" I was almost fizzing at the clopper.

As soon as the door closed behind us, I had his shirt off and we were snogging each other's faces off.

Then I went down on him and after five minutes he spunked down my throat. But he was soon rock-hard again after playing with my 34DDs and fingering my wet fanny.

So he boned me doggy-style over the end of the bed until I climaxed – gushing messily all over the carpet.

Now he says that if I agree to have sex with him every week he'll make sure that I get a promotion, with more money.

I'm very tempted by his offer.

What should I do?

PF, Norfolk

Hannah says...

GET that promotion sorted next time you've got his Johnson out. Tease him until he's on the point of no return – he'll be putty in your hands!

Dear Hannah,

MY girlfriend has got a Jack Russell terrier that's very protective towards her.

The other night she stripped off and teased my throbbing knob with her tongue and tits before deepthroating me expertly.

I then returned the favour and licked out her wet pussy while she wriggled with pleasure.

She was so turned on that she was literally screaming out loud at me to f her.

I was starting to give her a right good seeing-to when I felt this unbelievable pain in my arse.

Her bastard dog had sunk its teeth in me and was treating my bum like a bowl of Pedigree Chum.

Of course, she thought it was highly amusing.

But I don't want to tell her to choose between the dog and me because I think she'd go for the mutt, and I'd look a bellend.

What should I do?

DG, South Tyneside

Hannah says...

GIVE the dog a chew to keep it occupied while you bone the bird. Or kick it out of the house before you go to bed!

Dear Hannah,

I TAKE underwear off my female flatmates when they're out of the house, and sniff it while w*nking.

But I'm terrified they'll come back early and catch me at it.

What should I do?

PT, Stoke

Hannah says...

BUY some cheap knickers off the market and knock yourself out!

SEX CONFIDENTIAL

ANDREW AND RICHARD GET THEIR PLUMS STICKY WITH BUSTY ANDREA

Hannah says...

THERE was a time in the innocent longago when preparing a plum duff mixture with your tits hanging out would have been quite acceptable.

And as summer is the traditional time for mixing plum duff – giving the puddings plenty of time to mature before eating at Christmas – going half-naked made the job much cooler.

But thanks to the diktats of the accursed European Union, topless plum duff mixing has been outlawed and must now be conducted in hi vis protective clothing and a full face mask.

SEX MISS GROOMED LAD, 14

By BRAD CHADWICK news@sundaysport.co.uk

A TEACHER accused of having sex with a 14-year-old student had groomed him for a up to a year, according to police.

Chrystal Miller is alleged to have sent the teenager text and Facebook messages before the relationship turned physical.

A parent of the victim noticed their son had become withdrawn and quiet after his sexual relationship began with 33-year-old Miller.

Police said the teenager showed his mother the Facebook messages from the teacher and she alerted authorities.

Miller resigned from her job in the Abbott Independent School six weeks ago when she was first questioned by deputies over the allegations.

Affair

Officers served search warrants on Miller's phone and Facebook account as they gathered evidence.

They also interviewed the teen, who is alleged to have admitted to the affair.

Miller was arrested and charged when she turned herself in at the Hill County Sheriff's Office in Abbott, Texas.

Hill County Sheriff's Deputy Mark Wilson said: "She had really groomed him over the course of a year."

LILLO'S RINGPIECE

STEVE LILLIS' KNOCKOUT BOXING COLUMN

Quigg is having NIGHTMARES about me!

KID GALAHAD says WBA super-bantamweight champion Scott Quigg has been losing sleep over him.

Sheffield's Commonwealth and European champ is back in September – and he believes it's only a matter of time before he gets to grips with Bury's WBA champion.

Galahad, 24, said: "Let's face facts, I'm the upcoming star in the super-bantamweight division.

"I'm ready and willing to fight. If Quigg really believes he can beat me, then why not do it in front of the biggest audience possible on terrestrial TV?

"But, me personally, I believe that him and his trainer will want no part of it.

"Quigg is probably still having nightmares from our last sparring session – we both know what happened there."

Galahad, who is unbeaten in 17 fights, says his promoter Mick Hennessy recently made a big-money offer to Quigg, but their letter has been snubbed.

Brutal

He told Lillo's Ringpiece: "Straight after my last fight, Mick Hennessy offered Quigg a career best purse to face me in September live on Channel 5.

"We're still yet to hear back officially from his promoter with an answer. I'm guessing by the silence that they are not prepared to take the fight as they know he'll lose his world title to me in a brutal way.

"If Quigg believed he could beat me he'd have grabbed this kind of exposure on terrestrial TV with both arms. As a champion you can run but you can't hide.

WORRIED: Scott Quigg

"We're looking at world ranked opponents and we'll have this sorted in the next few weeks. I'll be ready to go on September 20."

Quigg's promoter Barry Hearn believes a December showdown against Carl Frampton is possible – leaving unlucky Galahad out in the cold for longer.

Galahad is determined to get his big chance eventually.

He added: "I'm going to show exactly why Carl Frampton vacated his European title rather than fight me – and why Quigg and his promoter daren't even mention me in the same sentence."

TALKING THE TALK: Kid Galahad reckons Scott Quigg is running scared

DREAM TEAM: Tibbs and Saunders

TIBBS TIPS EURO STAR BILLY JOE

LEGENDARY trainer Jimmy Tibbs says Billy Joe Saunders winning the European middleweight title would be one of the proudest moments of his career.

Tibbs is preparing Saunders for his showdown against undefeated Italian Emanuel Blandamura on July 26 at the Manchester Arena. Cockney Tibbs has trained boxing greats Nigel Benn, Frank Bruno, Steve Collins, Lloyd Honeyghan, Charlie Magri, Barry McGuigan, Steve Collins and many more.

But he says taking unbeaten Hatfield traveller Saunders to European title glory will be one of the highlights of his 30-plus years as a trainer.

"I've been in the sport a long time and worked with some of the best fighters to come out of this country," said Tibbs.

"But it will give me the most pleasure to see Billy crowned European champion."

CRICKET

KP: England losers are so unhappy

KEVIN PIETERSEN believes there's an "underlying current of unhappiness" within the England team following their first ever Test series loss to Sri Lanka on home soil.

England suffered a 100-run defeat to Angelo Mathews' side at Headingley on Tuesday to lose the two-Test series after the tourists escaped with a draw in the opening match at Lord's.

This latest setback prompted Pietersen, whose central contract was terminated by the England and Wales Cricket Board after the Ashes whitewash last winter, to suggest in his Daily Telegraph column that all was not well within the camp.

"England were in winning positions in both matches but blew it, and I believe that is a symptom of the senior players being very unsettled," he wrote. "They are not turning up for the captain or coach.

Emotion

"Stuart Broad and James Anderson looked jaded at Headingley. Why? Why was Jimmy so emotional?

"We have lost a lot of matches in the past but he has never shown such emotion.

"He has been through tougher times and suffered lower moments, but never been in tears before.

"It says to me there is an underlying current of unhappiness.

"The Australia tour was hard. We were beaten up due to a lot of reasons I cannot go into right now, and some of the senior players are suffering, with the result that they are struggling to offer leadership in the dressing room." KP went on to praise England's younger players, who've all acquitted themselves well.

BAGGAGE: Pietersen

He added: "It was absolutely fantastic to see Gary Ballance, Sam Robson, Joe Root and Moeen Ali all scoring hundreds.

"Add Ben Stokes and Jos Buttler to the mix and suddenly England will have a team mostly made up of young cricketers without any baggage, taking to Test cricket quickly and being successful."

RUGBY LEAGUE

LOWES IS READY

JAMES LOWES is under no illusions over the size of his task as he prepares to take charge of relegation candidates Bradford for the first time today.

The former Bulls hooker's first match is against his former club Warrington, who are on a roll with seven straight wins.

And Lowes said: "I don't think it could come any tougher. They are playing with a lot of confidence which is a big thing.

"I have great memories there and I'm looking forward to going back."

He added: "My aim is get a bit of enjoyment back in the game for these guys and the spectators.

"In the longer term, wherever we end up, it's to get back to the top. It's a big club who are well supported."

Rob 'n Joe go toe-to toe

SNOOKER

PRACTICE partners Neil Robertson and Joe Perry will contest the first ranking event final of the season at the Wuxi Classic in China.

The pair, who are good friends and regularly play together, both came through their semi-finals yesterday.

Defending champion Robertson was a 6-3 winner over fellow World Championship semi-finalist Barry Hawkins, while Perry got past Martin Gould 6-4.

Australian Robertson reeled off three frames in a row to see off Hawkins, with his highest contribution a 128 break.

"I'm going to be very determined tomorrow and nothing less than a win is acceptable," said Robertson.

"It's nice to get to the final of the first event of the season. But I don't want to come this far then get beaten in the final, especially as defending champion."

Meteor to shine

SITTINGBOURNE is the place to be tonight for their fantastic open-race meeting. Finals, heats and top quality greyhounds are aplenty — if you can't make it to Kent you can catch this quality action live on BAGS/SIS in all betting shops.

Westmead Meteor's record at Sittingbourne is incredible with 12 wins from 20 starts. It would take a brave punter to take him on, if there is a danger it comes from his kennel mate Castlelyons Cofi who is very much the emerging talent on the hurdle scene but I can't oppose Meteor and expect him to add to his impressive tally tonight.

Allen Cherry is the selection in the Dual Distance Maiden Final worth £500 to the winner. Cherry showed electric early in the heats over 500m last week making every yard a winning one, upped in distance to 642m. If she stays she wins and, looking at her Irish card, one piece of form caught my eye on 31st January at Dundalk over 613m with the comments ran on, that gives her fans plenty of hope.

Kizi has not raced since March but is a real classy sprinter. He is taking on quite a few short four-bend runners and his sprinter's pace should see him make a winning reappearance for Norah McEllistrim in the heats of the Sittingbourne sprint competition.

NOTTINGHAM BAGS MONDAY

Open-race fans have plenty to savour on Monday at Nottingham with some big names involved and top class racing, it's live in all bookmakers.

El Salvador started his career with a bang winning a N2 stake at Waterford in a cracking 28.62 +30, he finished second to Vans Viking at Limerick before being sent to Wimbledon for a crack at the £200,000 Derby.

He was impressive in the first two-rounds before going out but he finds himself at Nottingham in The Maiden Trophy now trained by Gerry Ballintine.

He must surely have the tools to not only take this heat but be a major force in the final.

Shara bang leaves Ali shell-shocked

By IAN BAKER

MARIA SHARAPOVA won 11 GAMES in a row to cruise into the second week.

The Russian beauty (below) looked in trouble when she trailed 3-1 in the opening set to American Alison Riske.

But Sharapova picked up her game, cruising to a 6-3 6-0 win in just one hour and nine minutes.

She blitzed through the match showing the kind of form that saw her win the tournament in 2004 as a 17-year-old.

Shazza said: "I felt better as the match went on. Alison is a great grass court player. I had a slow start, but I'm otherwise happy.

"I'm just happy to be here in the second week. I'm quite happy with that."

Sharapova could play Serena Williams in the quarter-finals, but may have a schedule advantage over her opponents having played her match under the Centre Court roof on a rain-ravaged day.

She said: "I don't like to look at the weather forecast as I like to go with the flow. But I'm happy to get my match in."

CHALLENGE: Djokovic

NO FEAR FOR NOVAK

NOVAK DJOKOVIC has told his fourth round rival Jo-Wilfried Tsonga: You don't scare me!

Frenchman Tsonga is known as one of the most difficult opponents on the circuit due to his booming serve and never-say-die attitude.

But Djokovic said: "I don't fear him. He has a big serve which he can use to his advantage.

"We have enjoyed some great matches in the past and this will be no different. He is a tough opponent when he is on his game.

By IAN BAKER

He's a very aggressive player and, if he is 'on', he can beat anybody – but I don't fear anything.

"I definitely need to gear up. At important moments I played well in the last match against Gilles Simon, although I was up and down through the whole match."

Djokovic took a tumble in his match against Simon on Friday.

But he has dismissed concerns he is carrying an injury, insisting he may have been down but he's not out.

The top seed said: "It was a sharp pain when I fell.

"I felt the click or pop and I feared it might be a dislocated shoulder, but luckily there is no significant damage. I have had ultrasound at the doctor's office and all is looking good.

"They told me I might feel soreness the next day but I have two days before I play again, so I will be fine."

It's easy to win

SMILES AHEAD: Nadal

RAFA'S STRIP SHOW WOWS FEMALE FANS

By IAN BAKER

RAFA NADAL overcame another scare to make the second week for the first time since 2011 – but could not keep his kit on.

The Spaniard was more like a stripper than a tennis player as he kept changing his shirt to the delight of his female followers.

On the court, he lost the first set for the third match running this week and remains in the worst form of the "big four".

Kazakhstan outsider Mikhail Kukushkin (above) shocked the world No.1 by snatching the first set on a tie-break.

But relaxed Nadal easily took the next three sets, all by a 6-1 scoreline, to reach the fourth round.

Nadal was one of the few to get his match in on schedule under the Centre Court roof as the rain fell.

The Spaniard said: "The crowd is always very special. Playing Centre Court always makes me feel very special.

"At the beginning he was playing really well and I was making a few unforced errors with my second serve.

"I did not serve my best in the tie-break.

"The body is fine, it is normal. The courts have been a bit more slippery, but that's part of the game.

"I have finished the matches playing better than what I started.

"Either way, I am very happy with getting to the second week. I'm finding the right solutions."

MATURE: Murray loves the attention as champion, but he struggled with the limelight in his younger days (inset)

WIMBLEDON LATEST

Dumped Tom in dark mood

TOMAS BERDYCH has blasted Wimbledon officials for his exit.

The Czech – runner-up in 2010 – crashed out to Marin Cilic in the latest ever finish of the tournament.

It was 9.39pm on Friday in pitch darkness when Cilic wrapped up a 7-6 6-4 7-6 triumph. But Berdych (left) insists the match should have been stopped as Hawk Eye was not working and the linesmen couldn't even see the lines.

He fumed: "How was it possible?

"I lost all the will to talk to a linesman. I saw so many mistakes from him.

"I asked the referee three times to change the guy. Then, at the end of the match, basically there was a third call and he was still there!

"I didn't even have the energy to talk to him when we should stop because at 5-4 or 4-3 he just told me, 'Well, the HawkEye doesn't work because it's too dark'."

now moody Murray is all grown up

By IAN BAKER

ANDY MURRAY reckons he won Wimbledon because he learned to grow up.

The reigning champion has been outstanding in his first week back at SW19 – and he is yet to lose a set.

But he admits he was very immature in his younger days, especially when dealing with the press.

Murray, 27, once faced the media while scoffing a plate of sushi. But there is nothing fishy about his behaviour now he has become a national hero.

He admitted: "Obviously, I had a few problems with the media. It became hard for me.

"I didn't feel like I was being represented fairly. I went into my shell. I didn't feel like I could express myself at all.

Embrace

"I became very defensive because I felt like I was getting criticised about not just my tennis but my hair, the way I looked, what I was saying.

"It was a tough few years for me because my jump came quite quickly from being 350 in the world to playing in the grand slams and being in press conferences with a lot of people and stuff.

"It was a quick transition and I had a few problems in that early part of my career.

"Then, once I started to grow up and understand how everything worked, I was able to handle things much better as I got older. I've had good people around me as well, who have helped me through tough moments and given me good advice when I've needed it.

TOUGH: Murray's fourth round opponent Kevin Anderson

"Now I feel like I'm a grown-up, so I can handle myself fine now."

Murray lives just down the road from Wimbledon and has also learned to embrace his home tournament.

He said: "I'm in familiar surroundings. That's going to make you feel more comfortable.

"Just being at home, staying in your own bed, having all of your friends and family around you, you're going to feel more relaxed away from the court. The nerves and the pressure here is also different to other tournaments for me. It's probably greater here than it is at the other grand slams, but I enjoy pressure.

"I like feeling nervous – I'm not scared of that feeling.

"I felt like I played my best tennis when I've been under pressure. I love playing here."

Murray takes on South Africa Kevin Anderson in tomorrow's fourth round.

He added: "Kevin is a tough opponent, he's playing some of the best tennis of his career.

"I think he's got his highest ranking ever. He's a big guy with a big game."

NOBODY can accuse Luis Suarez's attacking skills as lacking bite.

If only he just didn't take the phrase literally he wouldn't have been kicked out of the World Cup.

He has put the nine into canine in Brazil, that's for sure.

The mad man has taken a hell of a lot stick for his mental mauling of Italy's Giorgo Chiellini.

But I reckon it just shows he has a great appetite for the game and always fights tooth and nail.

And as his previous behaviour has shown, his motto has always been "If you can't beat them, eat them."

The striker is clearly disturbed and probably just needs a shoulder to cry on.

Though after his antics against Italy, I doubt anyone would be brave enough to let him near them for fear he will tuck in.

HUNGRY: Luis Suarez

Despite protesting his innocence, FIFA slapped him with a lengthy ban. For four months he has been told he can't take part in any type football related activity.

After that was announced, Stoke apparently tabled a bid for the player.

The ban is so harsh I've heard Suarez isn't even allowed to scratch his bollocks anymore as it includes contact with a ball.

He was also dropped by betting firm 888 Poker from his sponsorhip deal.

Although they could have cashed in on the controversy to call themselves ATE ATE ATE.

Suarez's teeth are now the second most crooked thing in Brazil.

FIFA president Sepp Blatter is still No.1 by a distance.

Despite his craziness, I reckon Barcelona will still bite Liverpool's hand off in a bid to sign him.

OUR HOMEGROWN PLAYERS NEED TO START SPREADING THEIR WINGS

EURO SUCCESS: But Gareth Bale is the exception to the rule

APPARENTLY, the reason England are crap is the large amount of foreigners in the Premier League.

Rubbish.

The problem lies with the fact there are too many foreign owners. Those owners favour foreign coaches, and they have their own scouting and youth recruitment methods.

Do you think your average Arab or American owner or European coach gives a toss how England do at the World Cup?

Of course not. For them, football begins and ends at club level.

Dozens of the top players at this year's finals appear in the Premier League. Is that part of the problem? Of course not. In fact, it's the key to our future success.

Having players that are starring for France, the Netherlands, Uruguay and Germany in our domestic league will only raise the standards that we are setting for our young homegrown players.

Roy Hodgson believes "the problem is with the pathway, not the production line".

Well I think that's crap. We simply aren't producing good enough players.

The problem isn't the lack of English players in the English league, it's the lack of English players playing in foreign leagues.

We need dozens of English Gareth Bales – young players who can excel at Premier League level and then make the transition to the top foreign leagues and do the same there and in the Champions League.

Only then will we see some truly world-class stars.

Back in the 70s our league was full of top-quality English players and we bossed the domestic European competitions – yet we failed to even qualify for two World Cups. It doesn't matter how many French, Spanish, Dutch or German players are playing in their respective home countries. The ones doing it for their national teams are all playing abroad.

French, Belgian and Dutch clubs rarely feature in the Champions League latter stages so their domestic leagues can't be all that.

And yet they've all done a hell of a lot better than Roy's boys in Brazil.

The trouble is, despite what they say about addressing football at grass roots level, the FA aren't capable of putting the measures in place to truly fix the problem.

And that's why they probably favour more "yes men" England managers and Nigel Farage on Greg Dyke's select committee.

● ENGLAND'S final World Cup match against Costa Rica was Luke Shaw's THIRD England appearance. Within hours of touching back down in Blighty Shaw (left) was off to Manchester United for £30million. Will we ever learn?

FORWARD THINKING: Bruno Zuculini is one for the future as City hope to patch things up with Toure (above inset) after signing Fernando (right inset)

Zuc it 'n see City bid for Yaya calm

MANCHESTER CITY are leading the chase to sign Argentine midfielder Bruno Zuculini as they prepare for life without Yaya Toure.

By JAMES McMATH

Toure wants to quit the Etihad this summer and continues to flirt with PSG, as well as super-rich clubs in the Middle East.

The Ivory Coast star is angry that City did not push the boat out to mark his birthday last month and claims the club forced him to go on an end-of-season celebration trip to Abu Dhabi instead of allowing him to spend time with his dying brother.

The Premier League champions are desperate to keep hold of their star man and have scheduled a meeting with the 31-year-old for after the World Cup.

Etihad bigwigs are quietly confident they can smooth things over but have already started bolstering their midfield just in case. Fernando arrived from Porto on Thursday and Zuculini is next on the shopping list.

The 21-year-old, who plays in Argentina for Racing Club, would not be a direct replacement for Toure but has massive potential.

He is also being tracked by Manchester United, Barcelona and Borussia Dortmund – but City is his preferred choice as he would link up with countrymen Sergio Aguero, Pablo Zabaleta and Martin Demichelis.

City are still keen on raiding Porto for Eliaquim Mangala.

The 23-year-old is currently in Brazil with France and has insisted he will only think about his club future after the World Cup.

Mangala said: "For now, I focus on the World Cup, then I go on holiday and I will do my pre-season with FC Porto.

"My contract runs until 2016. I do not know what will happen to my future but, for now, I am part of FC Porto."

BRUCE ON A TRANSFER ROLL

STEVE BRUCE will carry on splashing the cash after Hull landed Robert Snodgrass for £7million.

Winger Snodgrass (left) joined from Norwich on a £60,000-a-week deal following the £8m signing of Jake Livermore from Tottenham.

Bruce will now turn his attention to £4m-rated Spurs centre-back Michael Dawson, as well as pipping QPR to Tom Ince.

Dawson, 30, is in the last year of his contract at White Hart Lane while winger Ince, 22, is a free agent.

But the Tigers will have to pay Blackpool £2m because he is under the age of 23.

Cole fired up by Villa challenge

JOE COLE reckons the return of Aston Villa's infamous "Bomb Squad" will be crucial next season.

The midfielder (right) has arrived at Villa Park on a free transfer from West Ham.

And the 32-year-old believes manager Paul Lambert's vow to return Charles N'Zogbia and Darren Bent to the fold could be crucial.

Cole said: "Any team outside the top six in the Premier League, first and foremost you want to consolidate in the league because it's such a tough competition.

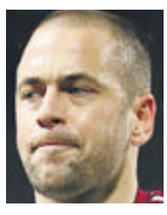

"Obviously, you've got Benty coming back and N'Zogbia, and Jores Okore coming back to fitness. I think we'll do all right."

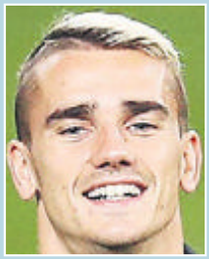

Cole can't wait to start pre-season training.

He added: "The last year at West Ham wasn't great for me.

"But this new move has really got the fire burning for me again."

TOP TARGET: Griezmann

Antoine is the main Mann for Wenger

By JON WEST

FRANCE star Antoine Griezmann has moved to the top of Arsenal's wanted list.

Boss Arsene Wenger wants the Real Sociedad winger to improve his side's attacking prowess down the left flank.

The 23-year-old hasn't been firing on all cylinders during the World Cup finals so far, but his £20million price tag won't put the Gunners off.

His arrival would speed the exit of Germany's Lukas Podolski.

Olivier Giroud is now Arsenal's No.1 striker and Wenger is keen to bring in fellow Frenchman Loic Remy from QPR to bolster his front line.

Podolski has been used as a left-sided attacker, but Wenger isn't impressed with the defensive side of his game.

Vital

Griezmann is better in that department although, almost inevitably, Paris Saint-Germain are interested in him.

That also applies to Toulouse right-back Serge Aurier, the Ivory Coast international Wenger had earmarked as a replacement for Bacary Sagna, who is on his way to join Premier League champions Manchester City.

If Aurier does go to PSG, then Wenger will try to tempt Newcastle to part with France's Mathieu Debuchy, who would cost somewhere in the region of £7m.

Arsenal have also been linked with Juventus midfielder Arturo Vidal, who is a vital part of the Chile team.

But he has been on Manchester United's radar for some time – and is valued at more than £40m, making a switch to the Emirates highly unlikely.

PAIN 'N SHAME: But Kenny Dalglish (inset) insists Liverpool won't turn their back on Suarez

Dalglish boost for Suarez after biting ban

By TREVOR WILLIAMS

LIVERPOOL legend Kenny Dalglish is confident the club will not turn its back on Luis Suarez.

And the Scot insists Suarez needs help to control his emotions.

The Uruguay striker was given a four-month ban by FIFA from carrying out any football-related activities after biting Italian defender Giorgio Chiellini in their World Cup clash earlier this week.

It is the third time Suarez has been suspended for biting an opponent – and Liverpool have faced calls to cut their losses with the controversial hitman, despite his outstanding campaign for the Reds last season when he scored 31 Premier League goals in 33 matches.

Yet former player and manager Dalglish, who brought Suarez to Anfield from Ajax in January 2011, thinks more understanding needs to be shown to the 27-year-old.

The Scot said: "It is my belief that when you bring a player to a football club, he becomes your responsibility.

"You don't just turn your back on a player because he has done something wrong.

"I think you will find that Liverpool will not turn their back on Suarez, whatever the ban FIFA have decided he must serve.

"It will be a heavy blow if the club has to do without him for the opening months of the season.

Harsh

"You can't really ask any one person why what happened against Italy happened, because there is only one person who knows and that is Luis.

"Some people have injuries you can't see. Sometimes, when people have something wrong with them, just because they don't have a plaster cast on their leg, people think they don't need help."

Dalglish thinks the punishment is harsh on Liverpool, as the incident was out of their control.

"When he was punished by the FA for the biting incident with Branislav Ivanovic and banned from domestic games, he was still allowed to play for his national team," he added.

"It seems a bit strange, then, that when he is banned for something he did with his national team, his club has to suffer too."

IMPACT: Divock Origi

Div 'n take will cost Bren £10m

LIVERPOOL have ramped up their interest in £10million-rated Belgian striker Divock Origi.

Reds boss Brendan Rodgers has been tracking the 19-year-old since last season.

Origi has caught the eye as an impact sub in all three of Belgium's matches at the World Cup so far.

Manchester United and Tottenham have already made enquires to French side Lille about the talented teenager.

Lille want to take Origi back on loan immediately for a season, but Liverpool would probably refuse now that Luis Suarez is ruled out for the first quarter of the new campaign.

The Reds are in talks with Bayern Munich over the final details of a £20m deal for Switzerland star Xherdan Shaqiri.

But Sevilla defender Alberto Moreno won't go to Anfield after the clubs failed to agree a fee.

FLOP: Yanga-Mbiwa

Lens pay £5m to get Mapou out of Toon

NEWCASTLE'S £8.5million flop Mapou Yanga-Mbiwa is set to end his Toon hell by joining Lens.

Newly-promoted Lens will offer the 25-year-old France centre-back a fresh start in Ligue 1 – with Toon boss Alan Pardew happy to sanction a loan move to create more space for further summer arrivals.

The deal will be with a view to a permanent transfer at the end of the season.

But Newcastle will have to take a hit on the fee they paid last year, with Lens valuing the player at £5m.

Great things were expected of Yanga-Mbiwa when he arrived at St James' Park on a long-term deal from Montpellier as one of five French signings in January 2013.

But he has failed to settle, managing just 28 Premier League starts in 17 months.

VAN DRIVES £100M CASH SPLASH

By JIMMY POLLOCK

LOUIS VAN GAAL will take Manchester United's summer spending spree through the £100million barrier with swoops for Arturo Vidal, Thomas Vermaelen and Mats Hummels.

United spent £60m in two days when they splashed out on Luke Shaw and Ander Herrera this week.

And new boss Van Gaal will continue his overhaul of the under-performing squad when he gets back from the World Cup with Holland.

His top target is £18m-rated Chile midfielder Arturo Vidal.

The 27-year-old (right) has three years left on his contract at Juventus, but he has already admitted he does not know where his future lies.

United are keen to add at least one more central midfielder after the capture of £29m Herrera, 24, from Athletic Bilbao.

And Van Gaal wants Arsenal to sell Belgium centre-back Vermaelen for £15m, while he is prepared to splash out even more to bring in Germany international Hummels from Borussia Dortmund for £18m.

Shaw's arrival has allowed United to sell left-back Alexander Buttner to Dinamo Moscow for £4.4m.

WEST HAM are mulling over a deal for teenage striker Ezequiel Ponce.

At 17, the Newell's Old Boys goalscorer – nicknamed Tank – is one of the hottest prospects in Argentina.

But his contract is part owned by investors and the Hammers are wary of such deals.

In 2007 they were almost relegated over breach of third-party ownership rules relating to Carlos Tevez and Javier Mascherano.

The Hammers are close to sealing a £5million deal for Boca Juniors' Argentinian full-back Emanuel Insua.

Argies give final Serg for Lavezzi

EZEQUIEL LAVEZZI could finally get his Brazilian start for Argentina, after Sergio Aguero was ruled out of the knockout tussle against Switzerland.

After twice replacing the Man City star as a sub, the Chelsea target will get his chance in a three-man strikeforce in Sao Paulo.

Argie coach Alejandro Sabella was using Lavezzi (below) in his 11-man training session and is likely to include the PSG forward with Lionel Messi and Gonzalo Higuain.

Defender Fabian Schar says Switzerland are drooling at the prospect of sending Argentina out.

The Swiss are massive underdogs, but Basel boy Schar said: "We have reached our main goal and we can now play without pressure and we want to use the opportunity."

Schar has the daunting task of marking Lionel Messi, but claims he is looking forward to it.

The 22-year-old Swiss said: "It's great for us that we can compare ourselves to one of the best teams in the world and Lionel Messi is one of the world's best players."

VAHID IS KRAUT TO OUT-FOX GERMANS

Germany v Algeria

Monday, 9pm – Live on ITV

ALGERIA want to end 32 years of hurt against Germany.

The Desert Foxes famously beat West Germany in their first World Cup in 1982.

But they were denied a place in the second phase when Austria and Germany played out an infamous 1-0 win that saw both teams progress at Algeria's expense.

The Algerians have long memories, and ahead of tomorrow's clash in Porto Alegre, coach Vahid Halilhodzic (above) insisted: "We have not forgotten 1982, nor what happened in Gijon, nor Germany.

"It may have been a long time, but every Algerian still knows what happened."

Germany start as huge favourites to make it through to the last eight.

But after leading Algeria into the knockout stages for the first time, Halilhodzic said: "We've made huge progress and we'll give everything."

Joachim Low played down his Kraut side's chances of lifting the trophy, insisting: "There's always something to tweak and something we can improve."

France v Nigeria

Ameobi's happy to be at the Sho

SHOLA AMEOBI is determined to keep his World Cup dream going for at least another game.

And to do that, he'll have to earn Newcastle bragging rights over France's Toon contingent.

Nigeria tackle the French in Brasilia on Monday where Ameobi will face team-mates Mathieu Debuchy and Moussa Sissoko.

But the 31-year-old striker is just happy to be playing in the World Cup.

Ameobi (below) said: "As a professional, this has been the ultimate experience and something I've dreamed about all my life.

"It's something that I never really thought would happen, coming into the latter stages of my career, but I'm making the most of it."

France are strong favourites to progress after being unbeaten so far.

But defender Debuchy isn't taking anything for granted.

"We know we've got every chance of going through and progressing, but to do that we've got to turn up and give our opponents every respect they deserve," he said.

Robben tells team-mates to stay focused

Holland v Mexico

Sunday, 5pm –Live on ITV

FLYING Dutchman Arjen Robben has warned his team-mates they cannot afford any sloppy seconds when they tuck in to the Mexicans.

Holland take on the Central Americans in Fortaleza and winger Robben, 30, says his side have no margin for error.

The Bayern Munich star said: "A bad day, a small mistake, a wrong decision by the referee – that could mean we're packing our bags and going home.

"You have to be tremendously focused. We are not concerned about who we play or when. For now, it's Mexico full-stop.

"We are on the right track, everything is great with us and we want to keep it like that."

Mexico came through their group unbeaten and only finished behind Brazil on goal difference.

"We cannot afford to think we've got an easy draw," added Robben.

"You should never look beyond the next game. Mexico have a good team, similar to Chile, who we played against and they were strong.

Strength

"But we can beat them. The opportunity is there – you just have to make sure you have everything covered.

"There is a strong feeling within the group that this cannot end against Mexico."

Mexico's manic boss Miguel Herrera has fired up his troops by telling them: "You are going to win."

Mexico have only ever reached the quarter-finals twice – and that was on home soil.

But Herrera believes his team can make history against the Dutch.

He said: "We are going to win. We will go out there full of strength and ideas. If my boys are sharp, then we will win – that feeling is the main one I want my players to understand.

"It is a very difficult game but if we commit 100 per cent, we can stop the Netherlands."

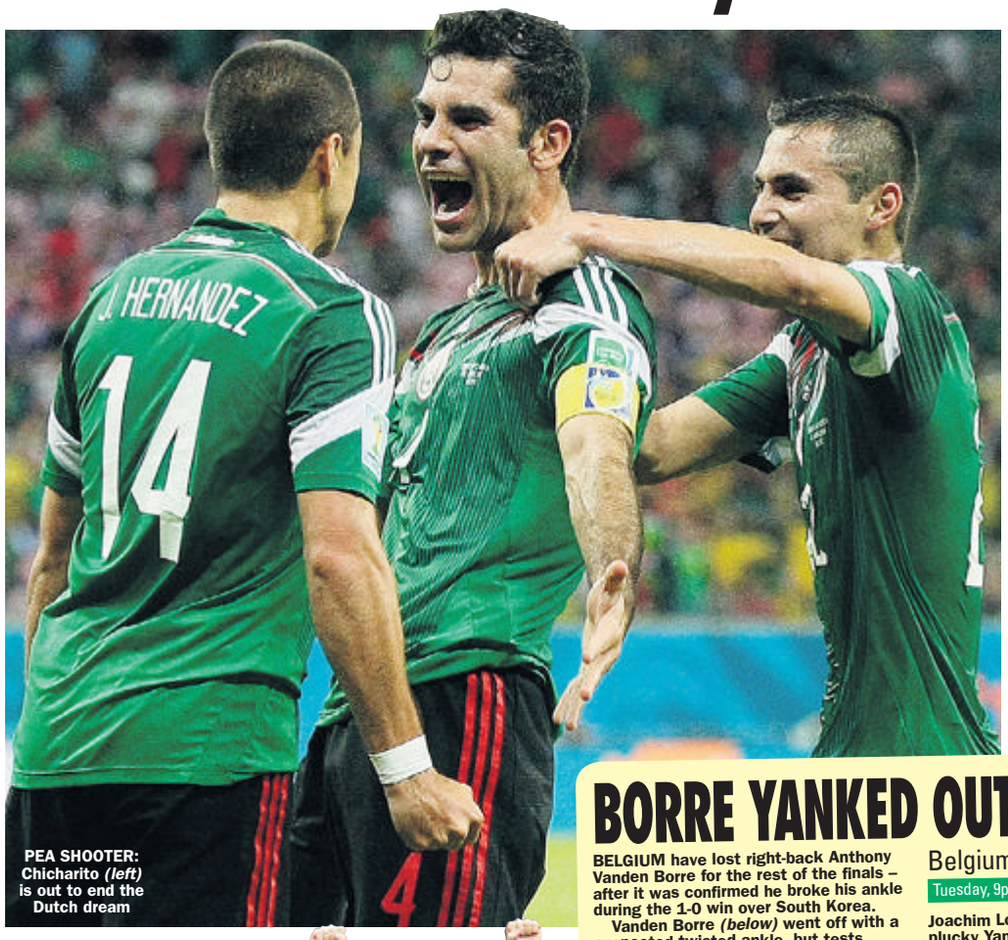

Leroy Fer – who scored in Holland's win over Chile – is out with a hamstring strain but Robin van Persie will return after his one-match ban.

Javier Hernandez has vowed to make up for lost time – and dump his new Man United boss Louis Van Gaal out of the finals.

He said: "I'm never going to feel pressured by anything.

"I don't live off goals. I live off enjoying myself, off the confidence I have in myself.

"I feel I'm on the right path and I want to continue like this."

Costa have Ron out of steam

Costa Rica v Greece

Sunday, 9pm – Live on ITV

BRAZIL legend Ronaldo says Costa Rica have been "marvellous" so far, but thinks their World Cup dream will end against Greece.

The two outsiders meet tonight in Recife for a place in the last eight.

Costa Rica stunned the world by finishing above England, Italy and Uruguay to top Group D.

And Ronaldo (above), who scored 15 goals in the World Cup and lifted the trophy twice, has been impressed.

He said: "This World Cup has been full of wonderful surprises and Costa Rica really blew my mind.

"I'm sure they are very pleased with what they have achieved, but I think they may have already peaked."

Surprise

Defender Cristian Gamboa insists his Costa Rica will stick to their cautious style of play.

They have shipped just one goal so far, and Gamboa said: "You can expect the same from us for the next game.

"When we came, and got the results, we were the surprise of the World Cup. Now we are not.

"Now people see Costa Rica like a favourite and we have to continue with the same level that we showed in the group stage.

"We have studied Greece, so I believe that we are going to play a good match.

"We have to be the ones with purpose and still going on writing another page of history."

BORRE YANKED OUT OF FINALS

Belgium v USA

Tuesday, 9pm – Live on BBC1

BELGIUM have lost right-back Anthony Vanden Borre for the rest of the finals – after it was confirmed he broke his ankle during the 1-0 win over South Korea.

Vanden Borre (below) went off with a suspected twisted ankle, but tests revealed he had a fractured fibula.

Belgium manager Marc Wilmots said: "Anthony won't play again at this World Cup, but he will stay with our team."

Belgium also have fitness concerns over captain Vincent Kompany (groin) and Thomas Vermaelen (thigh) ahead of Tuesday's clash in Salvador.

The US have already done the impossible to qualify out of the "Group of Death", yet Germany coach Joachim Low was still critical of the plucky Yanks, who his side beat 1-0.

"The USA played very well in both their previous matches, although I was expecting them to show a little more initiative," said Low.

"USA dropped relatively deep and pulled everyone a long way back.

"With the exception of the last minute, we stopped them creating chances.

"We showed lots of authority, and we always knew it would be a fight right to the end."

CHARLIE'S EURO WARNING

By ANGUS REID

CHARLIE MULGREW has told his Celtic team-mates they can't afford to chill out in Iceland when they get their Champions League campaign underway next month.

The Hoops travel north for the first leg of their second qualifying tie against KR Reykavik on July 15.

And defender Mulgrew does not want Ronny Deila's side to underestimate their opponents. He said: "We know it will be hard because every team is scrapping to get into the Champions League. They are nine games into their league, so it will be difficult.

"We need to try to match them. Last year, against Elfsborg, they were into their season and you could see playing the game how much they wanted to be in the Champions League.

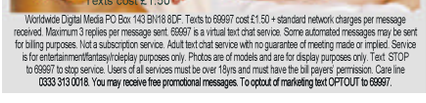

"I am sure the manager will have us ready.

"We're experienced in Europe now. We have been in the Champions League group stage the last two years and we want to get there again – but it's not easy."
